Protecting our employees-
Dispensing personal protective equipment

For a safe company. For your employees.

In order to protect your staff and maintain productivity, protective equipment is more important than ever. Protective masks, gloves etc. should be provided contactless and in a controlled way.

By using the dispensing system TM 226 you keep both procurement actions as well as personal contact as low as possible.

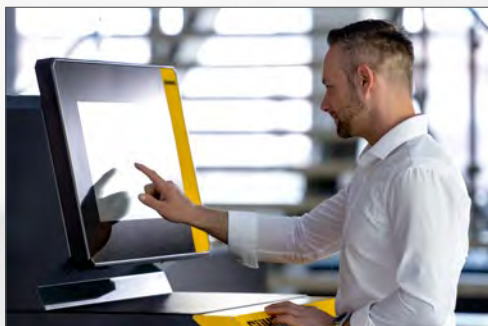

Take responsibility for yourself and for others. – It is so easy, safe and more transparent than ever: The PPE administration with the TM 226 guarantees full transparency and runs the re-ordering process automatically.

You do not have to be afraid of bottlenecks and you can reduce the infection risk in your company!
